Johnny Depp's Career and Vocation

Introduction

What is my calling? Is my job made for me? If I feel like changing direction, which one may suit me? Have I got several options? Am I right to undertake this training? Here are questions which may pop up at any stage of our life, bearing in mind that our modern society forces us to do soul searching more than in the past. In addition, the professional context has become tougher, and often compels us to take stock of our potential and our aspirations.

For this report, focusing on career and vocational guidance, we have chosen to analyse the features specific to these areas, leaving aside those which are related to the personality in general, such as for instance the Sun sign - Ascendant combination, which provides only indications on the character: indeed, one may very well have a career in the military while being a Cancer or a Pisces. Similarly, one may be a perfume creator and an Aries or a Sagittarius.

In the case we are interested in, i.e. carrying out an astrological diagnosis of your social and professional destiny, it is the 10th House taken in its entirety, starting with its cusps, the Midheaven (MC), that we assess in detail. It is necessary to examine the sign it tenants, the aspects formed by planets if any, as well as their presence in the 10th House. Technically, the position of the axes is given by the time and place of birth. Therefore, it is a particularly precise and personal indicator.

Traditionally, the whole 10th House provides information on the social status and the success concretely seen by everybody. It is a "brilliant" House, as demonstrated by many acclaimed astrologers, and the planets conjuncting the MC axis are often dominants, and those in the 10th House are always important for the entire chart. Among other works, we refer in this regard to the researches of Michel Gauquelin, who has established statistics showing this power of influence. It goes without saying that these effects are mainly felt in the social and professional area.

However, one must not deduce a contrario that people having no planets conjunct the MC or even posited in the 10th House will not experience a remarkable professional destiny. In the charts of Barack Obama, Steven Spielberg, or Rupert Murdoch, there are no planets in this House. Nevertheless, their destiny will go down in history. Why? Simply because other indicators are at play.

Beyond idealistic concepts like destiny, each of us is led to practise a job or to accomplish daily routine tasks, which are utterly important, given the time we dedicate them. This practical profile, which concerns our duties, is described by the 6th House. The astrologer finds there elements on the ambiance which may suit us, and on our relationships with colleagues or possible partners.

It is also necessary to examine income. Don't we say "to earn one's living"? When the moment comes to choose a profession, we wonder whether it will feed us. This is why we must mention it and analyse the ruler of the 2nd House as well as the planets posited in this House.

Work is above all a powerful agent for social integration. Ideally, everyone is prompted to bring one's personal qualities into the public sphere. The role of Jupiter and his possible link with Saturn is studied here as a factor of adaptation to society.

The distribution of the planets in the natal chart also provides additional fine-tuning or further confirmation of certain characteristics regarding the way the person experiences his professional development.

Let us precise once more that, in our opinion, each sign enables to practise any activity. On the other hand, the person concerned behaves in ways which are specific to each zodiacal temperament.

Since astrology is neither deterministic nor fatalistic, your chart will not stick a label or define a precise job for you. But it will offer food for thought based on your penchants, your talents, and your competences.

Thus, we hope that this report will enable you to better discern your natural affinities so as to find the best suitable path.

List of your active planetary aspects

Below, provided for information purposes only, are the list of all your active aspects.

Stars indicate the strength of the aspects. The yellow colour indicates a soothing and conciliating aspect, and the red colour, a dynamic and tense aspect. The red aspects enable you to evolve, to take action, and to learn to turn your "weaknesses" into assets through your life experiences. The yellow aspects are innate strengths on which you rely in order to grow better with the former.

N.B.: to assess the condition of the rulers of the 10th and the 2nd Houses, as well as the condition of the planets in the 6th and the 10th Houses, all aspects between planets are taken into account, except for the aspects to angles, given their passive nature.

Possible jobs, motivation and assets

Your suitable jobs, your career

According to the Tradition, which dates back to Ptolemy, the 10th House, which begins with the Midheaven (MC), describes honours and dignities. The whole House gives the image of your overall destiny, with your major goals and your vocation, if it can be expressed openly. It is about potential for outstanding achievements and not about work as a means of existence.

Technically, the 10th House may include one or two signs, sometimes three. However, this report delineates only the MC, much more decisive according to the statistics, and essential in any case. The cusp of this axis points directly at the stars, since it is also the zenith of the chart. Therefore, its symbolism is clear. It speaks volumes about your ambitions, your lifestyle, your social status, and your social and professional success, as noticed by other people.

Your MC is in Taurus

Your public destiny must be synonymous with realisation, Johnny Depp. The MC in the 2nd zodiacal sign indicates that you prefer stability as far as your profession is concerned. Your first choice has been thoroughly pondered over. It has proved steady and may even last for good. Provided a decent level of comfort and income is secured, because you hate uncertainties, you have nothing against keeping the same job all your life.

Among your assets, one must mention your enormous capacity for hard work and your strength of character which commands the admiration of your leaders, your colleagues, or your partners.

You need to feel and to touch concrete things. You are unable to work only on concepts. You must see quantifiable results, so as to assess the work accomplished. With the MC in this position, you are pragmatic above all. No matter how much time it will take to achieve your ambitions, you will not stop on your road.

You are comfortable with jobs linked to finance. You understand the meaning of money, which you tie to commitment and toil. For instance, banker, accountant, wealth manager.

You show an aptitude for the civil service and the public administration, but real estate may also suit you perfectly well.

It is possible to imagine you in professions matching your penchant for nature: farmer, landscape gardener, forest warden, horticulturalist, botanist, breeder.

Owing to your artistic gifts, especially in music and entertainments, you may become a singer, rather in the classic or pop genre, a sculptor, a dressmaker or a theatre actor. In addition, staging may be a good option.

The other options involve your taste buds: apprentice cook, innkeeper, but mainly chef or even pastry cook.

Your penchant for construction may turn you into a carpenter or an architect.

The keywords defining your social and professional fulfilment are as follows:

Construction, patience, long-term projects, effort, materialism, power and sweetness, hedonism, solidity, loyalty.

Your professional motivation

You may not have been able to identify yourself with the concrete jobs enumerated at the end of the chapter dealing with the MC. Indeed, we carried out the exercise bearing in mind that it is impossible to give an exhaustive inventory for each of the twelve signs. Therefore we have chosen to limit it to the most typical ones, according to the traditional interpretation. However, a human being never corresponds to a "cliché".

On the one hand, there are so many medical practitioners, carpenters, or civil servants that the list could be endless, whether they are Aries, Taurus, Gemini, etc. The only nuance is that they are likely to practise in an Aries, Taurus, Gemini, and so forth, manner.

On the other hand, the world is changing, and nowadays, there is a large range of options which evolves fast. Fortunately, other indicators enable us to complete the picture. To begin with, we assess the role of the MC ruler, which also provides information on the way you work and how your vocation was born.

Your MC ruler is Venus

Johnny Depp, after having found the position of the MC, we focus on the planet ruling this sign, namely Venus. She will tell us more about your professional motivations.

It is very simple. You need seduction, charm, love, or beauty! One might as well say that your motivation may dwindle if you experience a lack of recognition in this regard. You pay high attention to nice colleagues, clients, or partners. You need to win the approval of everyone, and you nip in the bud any possible conflict.

Ideally, your appointment should have occurred harmoniously, and you appreciate to be showered with praises. Fortunately, you are often blessed with good luck.

If possible, try to choose an environment full of calm, luxury, and sensuality. For instance, artistic circles attract you irresistibly.

The ruler in the 10th House

Johnny Depp, after having found the location of your MC and its ruler, we now look at the latter's position in House. This is how we get additional clues to your professional motivation, which may confirm the above, or sometimes, be completely different. Should this case occur, bearing in mind that a career profile is seldom uniform or bland, the possibilities of progress are widened.

In your chart, Johnny Depp, the ruler of the MC is in the 10th House, that of career. The analogy between the Midheaven and this position reinforces the importance of your social and professional life. In a natural fashion, you put your energy at the service of your career.

The tradition believes that this is a sign of quite rapid success, of strong vocation, and of willpower smartly focused on your social advancement.

The planet involved, especially if it conjuncts the MC axis, becomes part of the dominants. It represents the easy and obvious way in which you position yourself in the social and professional sphere. The values it symbolises often correspond to the image the public has of you.

To conclude the analysis of the ruler of your MC, we examine its condition, namely the number of positive and/or negative aspects it receives, among other factors, including the sign in which it is posited.

Johnny Depp, the condition of Venus, ruler of your MC, is neutral. In general, it brings about neither special obstacles nor additional support for the expression of your professional motivation.

Your assets and your weaknesses

Planets could be considered as lever arms enabling you to further your career. They influence this area of life according to their specific nature, and they show how you approach vocation, work, or social status.

When they are in the 10th House, their impact is direct, noticeable, and obvious. This applies all the more strongly to conjunctions with the Midheaven (MC), in which case they favour your position, or they warn about possible pitfalls. To use a metaphor, a planet on the Midheaven resembles a person who expresses easily his character, his temperament and his tastes when he deals with his career.

However, the 10th House is empty in many charts. This does not mean, in line with what we have written in the introduction, that this area of life is uneventful. In such cases, the analysis should focus on the Midheaven and on the ruler of the 10th House, which are not affected by the presence of other planets.

As far as your assets and weaknesses are concerned, it is also necessary to examine the planets aspecting the MC. Similarly to a presence in the 10th House, the aspect of a planet's specificity colours your social destiny, for good or ill.

Here again, in some natal charts, there is no relationship between the planets and the MC. This leads us to draw the same conclusion as that which we have just underlined whenever the 10th House is empty. This does not mean that there is nothing interesting to say, only that the interpretation must be limited to delineating the sign sheltering the MC and its ruler, who remains the "sole person in charge", regardless of his position in the chart.

Mercury in the 10th House

Johnny Depp, in your chart, Mercury is in the 10th House. Your sense of communication and contact enables you to impose yourself in the social and professional sphere. You have a talent for any occupation involving interpersonal skills. The written or the spoken word, depending on the case, may bring about a rapid rise.

Other possibility: manual talent, cleverness, or business acumen are your features. This position of Mercury offers numerous options. In any case, you are very adaptable, regardless of the work environment, and your state of mind remains young.

Among possible flaws, there is of course the danger of stretching yourself too thin, because you cannot help engaging in myriads of projects. Sometimes you can hardly complete them.

Johnny Depp, Mercury is in neutral celestial condition. In general, it brings about neither special obstacles nor additional support for the expression of your professional motivation.

Venus in the 10th House

Johnny Depp, in your chart, Venus is in the 10th House. This implies that your gentle nature and your powers of seduction are the signs of your social aggrandizement. You have a natural sense of diplomacy and of good manners. These are valuable assets to climb smoothly the ladder of your success.

You need to express your aesthetic and artistic inclination in broad daylight.

In this position, Venus is theoretically an omen of good luck and ease. You do not need to make too many efforts in order to be acclaimed.

An affective planet posited in the House of public image may indicate that love and career are linked. A woman of your entourage, whom you idealise (or love), may play an instrumental role and may enable you to shine in your turn.

Among possible flaws, Venus indicates some degree of nonchalance in the social and professional area.

Johnny Depp, Venus is in neutral celestial condition. In general, it brings about neither special obstacles nor additional support for the expression of your professional motivation.

Mars in trine with your MC

Johnny Depp, in your chart, Mars is favourably linked to your MC. This aspect is less important than when the planet is in the 10th House, but it shares many things with this case. You manage to channel your energy, very powerful, in order to reach your social and professional objectives. Regardless of your field of activity, Mars brings you courage and fighting spirit. Even though you must struggle, convince, or meet an opposition, you will get out of it stronger. It is the sign of a remarkable efficiency and pugnacity at the service of your career. You never give in.

Uranus in trine with your MC

Johnny Depp, Uranus promises surprises and twists and turns! In this position, the most unpredictable planet ensures that you will know how to grasp the opportunities coming to you. The best possibilities of success pop up when you opt for the less conventional or the more original path.

You must get off the beaten track often, and you must dare to knock at the door of those who offer unexpected support. You will be welcome in the circles of innovative start-ups, or in companies exploring unusual types of collaboration. You may have the occasion to launch utopian projects, but anyway, as far as your career is concerned, you are driven by entrepreneurial boldness, including in the weirdest fields.

Pluto in trine with your MC

Johnny Depp, the position of Pluto, favourably linked to the MC, heralds that you manage to find very powerful support with a view to achieving your ambitions. Indeed, you have aplenty. Your vocation is a pressing need, and passion characterises every implementing step. Even though you must plot in the dark or overcome obstacles, you will not hesitate. It must be underlined that Pluto also endows you with the capacity to transform yourself or to get back on the social and professional saddle.

Alternative professional paths

In the previous chapter, we have seen the meaning of the Midheaven and of its ruler. Indeed, in many cases, they can provide relevant information about your professional future and about the most suitable paths for you.

However, the Midheaven, the 10th House, and the 6th House, which are discussed further down, do not always reveal the entire range of social and professional possibilities of your natal chart. Certain areas of life – symbolised by the 12 astrological Houses of your chart – are highlighted by the presence, the dignity, or the activity of the planets posited in them.

Some Houses are deemed dominant. They give additional indications in terms of taste, of desire to express your talents and to spend your energy, especially in your work. They represent different potentialities, which are offered to you in addition to those mentioned in the other chapters.

Your Dominant Houses

We are describing here the meaning of your dominant Houses, except the 6th and 10th Houses, already analysed in this Report, and the 1st House, which is not related to any concrete life area and therefore can provide no information here.

The 11th House is one of your dominants

The 11th House is that of support, protection, and friendship. It also represents collective projects, hopes, humanitarian and social causes, facility for joining groups. It is a House which may have less concrete implications than some others in terms of professional occupation, but which on the other hand is more general and offers more possibilities of career.

With an 11th House among your dominants, you are certainly prone to work with a group rather than solo. Jobs related to ecology, climatology, trade unionism, humanitarian help, NGOs may perfectly suit you.

By analogy with the sign of Aquarius, other professions may suit you: film director, pilot, astronaut, radiologist, inventor, specialist in the development of high tech products, engineer, psychotherapist, audio-visual technician, electronics specialist, computer programmer, or webmaster.

The 7th House is one of your dominants

The 7th House is that of support granted by people in general: that of associations, social services, partnerships, contracts, marriages, lawsuits, competitions, but also that of the public, and of customers for artists and suppliers. A loaded 7th House naturally points to jobs related to other people, including the career.

Jobs corresponding to a dominant 7th House may be for example barrister, diplomat, intermediary, judge, salesperson, entrepreneur linked to his spouse, adviser, arbiter, councillor of the Labour Court, negotiator, conductor, group leader, wedding planner, or master of ceremonies, etc.

But also, by analogy with the sign of Libra, hairdresser, dancer, decorator, florist, perfumer, or stylist.

The 4th House is one of your dominants

The 4th House concerns your roots: the home, the natal house and then the place of residence, the family, the private life, childhood, real estate, agriculture, the past, the mother for the feeding aspect – or the father owing to the name transfer according to other authors – the soil, natural resources, attachment to one's village or district.

Although opposite the 10th House, that of career, the 4th House suggests many professions, the success of which is not necessarily less important. It will just be less noticeable by the world but can be equally fulfilling: real estate agent, genealogist, farmer, forest warden, employee or manager of a home-care services company. You may also be a historian or an archaeologist.

This House does not rule out various professions in the arts, politics, or literature. Professions such as teacher, geologist, restaurant owner, hotel-keeper, photographer, or writer, are also suitable.

The daily atmosphere at work

The nature of your daily work

The analysis of the sign in which the 6th House is found reveals a lot about the nature of your daily work. Whereas the Midheaven and the 10th House represent your vocation, your career, and your visible social status, the 6th House relates to your routine activities when you perform your job. It describes the atmosphere at the workplace, the relationships with your colleagues as well as with your clients or your suppliers.

The 6th House is about duties. It tells how you deal with constraints or limitations, if they affect your ambitions, or if you fit into the mould without difficulty.

It is necessary to keep in mind that this House is slightly less important than the 10th House, which is about professional ambition. Indeed, in the tradition, astrologers do not give extra weight to planets posited there, whereas planets conjunct the MC are often included in the dominants of the whole chart.

Despite all this, the analysis of this part of the chart remains unavoidable in the career portrait, for it describes your usual daily activities. The concept of "day to day" activity is of the utmost importance here.

The 6th House in Capricorn

Johnny Depp, with the cuspide in Capricorn, your 6th House prompts you to respect strict discipline in your daily work. You repeatedly make efforts, conscious that you are engaged in a marathon rather than in a sprint. You do not take professional duties lightly. You are dedicated, serious, reliable, but also very ambitious.

Even a rigid setting may suit you, because you dislike distractions around you. You do not hesitate to give a piercing look at joking colleagues if they prevent you from concentrating.

Conversely, you may behave in such a "personal" way that people may be scared by your coldness and your lack of conviviality.

The way you experience your professional duties

We still have to check whether you have planets in this House, similarly to what we have done for the 10th House.

The Moon in the 6th House

Johnny Depp, in your chart, the Moon is in the 6th House. This planet, ruler of Cancer, a highly emotional sign, indicates that psychological issues are often at play when your profession is involved.

In your daily work, relationships with your colleagues are very important to you, as well as those with your partners or your clients. Working in a nice atmosphere is a must, a sine qua non condition, if you are to give your best.

You have a great capacity to help people. However, your mood swings may lessen your productivity. The Moon is a planet which brings about needs for change or for instability in the House in which it is posited. The Moon in the 6th House may also point to some form of dependency on people or on situations encountered each day.

Johnny Depp, the Moon is in neutral celestial condition. In general, it brings about neither special obstacles nor additional support for the expression of your professional motivation.

The money earned through your work

"The labourer is worth his hire". Regardless of your field of activity – free-lance job, employee, labourer, civil servant, artist, etc. – remuneration is a key factor. To understand the way you approach this topic, we shall focus on the planet ruling the 2nd House, i.e. the money you earn, since its influence may speak volumes about your capacity to turn your efforts into hard cash. In some cases, it confirms or invalidates the first texts of analysis of the career.

Mercury is the ruler

Johnny Depp, the ruler of the 2nd House of the chart is Mercury. He endows you with a flair for money as a means to express your values or to communicate. You instinctively guess that remuneration is a key element of your social and professional life, and you cleverly negotiate your working conditions. Although you are not the most materialistic sign of the zodiac, you are aware that you cannot live on love alone. Pragmatic, quick, and having a head for business, you always manage to get back on your feet when it comes to reaping the fruits of your efforts or of your ideas.

The ruler of the 2nd House is in the 10th House

Johnny Depp, the ruler of your 2nd House is in the 10th House. This position is an excellent omen, and it is most likely that your social ascent is synonymous with hard cash. Thus your earnings match your status and the consideration which the society keeps you in.

Your integration and career development capacities

We are now assessing Jupiter's position in your natal chart, which indicates how you become socially integrated.

Jupiter expresses your need or your capacity to cooperate with other people.

He also symbolises the law and the ability to adapt to rules, which is always helpful as we analyse how your vocation could fit in a society project.

Moreover, Jupiter describes the way you organise yourself, your learning potential, and your aptitude for leading a group.

This lucky planet is related to honours, to the development of your professional activity, and to the improvement of your social status.

Jupiter in the 9th House

Johnny Depp, in your chart, Jupiter is in the 9th House. In this position, the planet brings about large-scale social recognition. This is often related to foreign matters, bearing in mind that Jupiter is in the House with which he has the strongest natural affinities. Frequently, it is your ability to counsel and to teach, or your optimistic judgements, which favour your development. Politics or education may be the fields in which you blossom.

A report on career must examine whether there is a close link between Jupiter and Saturn. The former enlarges personal horizons so as to become integrated in a group and to lead it, while the latter describes the context and the rules to be followed. Both planets form a pair, the aspect of which, if any, strongly impacts the way you behave in the social and professional sphere. A major aspect between these planets provides clues to your capacity to improve your career and to adapt to society.

Johnny Depp, in your chart, Jupiter forms no major aspect with Saturn. Therefore, there are no hindrances and no consolidation qualifying what has been said regarding your capacity for integration and for social expansion.

Predispositions which may have an influence

As this report is drawing to a close, we offer additional precisions to the professional tendencies described above, and we analyse the distribution of the planets in your chart, based on elements, modes, and quadrants.

Signs are distributed among four elements: Fire, Earth, Air, and Water. Therefore, each chart displays different proportions of them and reveals specific dispositions.

The way planets are posited in the chart divided into four equal geometrical parts must be considered: it is the distribution in quadrants.

Then, in a third step, we examine the planets' position in modes: cardinal, fixed, and mutable. By analogy, they refer to a period of the season: cardinal for the beginning, fixed for the middle, and mutable for the end.

By looking at the place where the majority of planets are, we get extra pieces of information which complete the report on your career, based mainly on psychological inclinations. This predisposition is synonymous with deep preference, and not with determinism.

Your dominant element is the Earth

This is the diagram drawn from the distribution of the ten main planets of your chart, according to the elements:

Johnny Depp, in your chart, the Earth element, corresponding to the signs of Taurus, Virgo, and Capricorn, is the most important one. You know how to be efficient, persevering, and down-to-earth, without too many qualms. Everything you undertake must be durable and must bear fruits. With a well-asserted but nervous temperament, your relative weakness comes from a tendency to keep your stress to yourself and to let nothing appear. The good thing is your resistance and your stability, against all odds.

Your most represented quadrant is the South-East

Here is now the distribution of your quadrants, drawn from the analysis of the importance of the planets and the angles of your chart:

Your Four Quadrants

Johnny Depp, in your chart, the South-East quadrant, represented by the 10th, the 11th, and the 12th Houses, is prevailing. You are eager to turn your dreams into reality. You achieve your ambitions as soon as possible, whether it is through a developed social life, an overly busy life with friends, or a fierce need to take action in order to reap the fruits of your natural dynamism – in people's eyes, of course. It is not rare that spiritual or humanitarian matters are among the subjects you are motivated by, be it at the price of some isolation, deliberate or not.

The mode fixed is dominant in your chart

Here is now the diagram of your modes, based on the analysis of the planets and the angles of your chart:

Your Modes

Johnny Depp, in your chart, the Fixed mode is preponderant. When you devote yourself to a mission, you complete it successfully. It is out of the question to give up at the first problem encountered. You know how to face your responsibilities. You are tenacious, loyal and persevering. On the other hand, you are opposed to changes, a principle which is contrary to your natural functioning, which expects everything to be immutable.

Conclusion

The purpose of this report on your professional choices is to suggest tracks to explore. Of course, it has limits, even though, compared to other disciplines, astrology enables to unveil important secrets. It contributes in particular to confirm a diagnosis made by specialists in vocational guidance.

It is impossible to guess your occupation or to foresee that which you may choose, because, for instance, no astrological report can take into account your social environment or your training level. Nevertheless, highlighting the abilities and the tastes reflected in your natal chart can steer you towards the type or types of career which may suit you best, which is already a lot.

We hope that thus you have a clear idea of the kind of activities for which your motivation is the strongest.

Today more than ever, the range of professions is very wide, and new branches emerge each day. People also change direction more often throughout life.

We advise you to reread or to ponder over this analysis, which remains valid during your whole life, since it describes your skills at the potential level.

Also bear in mind that planetary transits indicated in our predictive reports sometimes provide the trigger necessary to embark on an activity at a given period – or to follow a different route – thus turning your potential into a real professional experience.
