Grand Horoscope 2018 for Scarlett

Introduction

Based on techniques which have been practiced for thousands of years and fine-tuned over the centuries, astrology offers distinct information about the events and the emotions that we are most likely to experience: affective life, social and professional life, material life, etc. Among these astrological forecasting techniques, the so-called "forecast by transits" is the most reliable one. This is precisely what we use in this report.

In this technique, the natal chart is superimposed on the transiting planets of the period you have chosen, and all the astrological aspects thus formed are analysed.

By assessing the nature of these astrological aspects formed between transiting planets and these strategic points, it is possible to work out a forecast report not only for a given date but also for a series of dates.

In your document, transits are displayed in chronological order and according to their beginning date. We recommend that you check the Aspectarian, which indicates the duration of each transit: the longer ones are generally the more important ones. In a first stage, you may decide to read them only.

Each forecast text includes several parts:

- a title summing up the main trend of the period,
- An "R" icon is sometimes displayed. It indicates that a planetary link is repeated - i.e. that the transiting and the transited planets are in aspect in the natal chart - which fine-tunes the quality as well as the strength of the transit,
- the nature of the active transit, the planets involved, and the type of major aspect (in forecasting, it is unwise to use minor aspects),
- the period of the transit with automatic detection of the previous occurrence of the transit, if any,
- five coloured stars rating the importance of the transit, calculated on the basis of its duration and its nature: four or five coloured stars indicate an important period with probably visible effects, three stars, a climate of average importance, one or two stars, a short period or little significance. The colour red indicates a period of tension, the colour gold, a sometimes too inactive period of satisfaction, the colour orange, a mixed conjunction transit with a positive or negative impact,
- the interpretation text, which may begin with one or two warnings about the analysis of your natal chart.

Such warnings, sometimes displayed as preambles, constitute valuable additional information for the analysis of the nature and the importance of the transit. We strongly advise you to read them attentively.

Indeed, the new version of our report includes major improvements and becomes "intelligent". Instead of displaying a mere series of transits, each interpretation is systematically compared with the configuration of the natal chart. The purpose is to detect recurring transits, transits to the Ascendant ruler, as well as natal planets under stress. This is similar to what a seasoned astrologer does in his one-to-one consultations.

Important remark: certain paragraphs are repeated. This is absolutely normal and intentional, for the sake of clarity. Furthermore, seen from the Earth - the reference in astrology - all planets except the luminaries make periodic retrogradations and may pass on a sensitive point of your natal chart several times, producing exactly identical influences afterwards.

To make the most of your report, we suggest that you extensively use the interactivity of the Aspectarian on page 8. With our new functionality, clicking on any transit gives you a direct access to its interpretation. Once you have read it, you can get back to the Aspectarian by clicking on the return icon and so on. In this way, you can easily go to the periods or to the transits you are interested in.

Read your forecast now, bearing in mind that the stars incline but do not compel. Astrology is a tool which should be used to live better, to take action during the most harmonious periods, and to put things into perspective during more challenging periods. The indications provided must not inspire dread but must offer help.

Despite your declining nervous energy, you are forced to brave problems cropping up from all sides,
